Hearing loss?

We can help

Hearing Concern LINK

Who we are

Hearing Concern LINK works with adults living with hearing loss, and their relatives, friends and colleagues. We also work with professionals who support adults with hearing loss.

Our services and activities are delivered throughout the UK. We work closely with local, regional and national organisations across all sectors.

What we do

- Help people adjust to living with hearing loss
- Bring people together to learn from each other
- Provide information about hearing loss
- Campaign for better services

Nina aged 72 from Glasgow says,

'When I lost my hearing it turned my life upside down. But at Hearing Concern LINK I've found people who really care and understand. I've learnt to cope in all kinds of social situations. And I'm enjoying life again.'

Amanda aged 31 from Manchester says,

'When George started to have trouble with his hearing, it caused problems for the whole family. Hearing Concern LINK recognised the strain on me as well as George, and supported us through the difficult times. I feel we've been given our lives back.'

Charles aged 53 from Bristol says,

'At first I felt confused by my hearing aids. I didn't want to wear them or draw attention to myself. But with advice from Hearing Concern LINK I began to feel more confident. Now I'm not embarrassed any more, and can get on with my life again.'
